

What a great 2008!

We had a really fun year in 2008, with lots of old faces and some new ones keeping our team alive and having fun. TF2 has turned out better than expected, and Left 4 Dead is pure old time great fragging.

Just last night we played a match in versus L4D, with another campaign afterwards and you can't beat that kind of fun anywhere. Suab, lev, mizan and slash played with the new guys ronny, mm, juice, and ds - good stuff!

I just wanted to add how thankful I am to play with such a great group of guys in the best hobby ever created.

Thanks, Merry Christmas and Happy Hanakkah and I hope your 2009 is great.
